What is Quartermania?

Specifically selected vendors put items up for auction. If you like an item, you bid on it (1-4 quarters) and put your auction paddle up. If the vendors pull out the “chip” with your corresponding paddle number, and you placed a bid, you win that item.

Confused? Not to worry... You will catch on to this fast paced, fun game!

With over 30 vendor auction items, additional opportunity drawings, 50/50 drawing, a silent auction and more, it is going to be an action packed evening!

Bring quarters... you’ll need them to bid (also available at the event)

Limited to the first 125 paid guests - This event is sure to sell out again
